MINEOLA, L. I., March 8.—"I don't see why anybody should be concerned over such unimportant things," said Colonel Roosevelt when he reached Mineola for jury service yesterday, and was asked to say something about the visit of George W. Perkins to Sagamore Hill.

"Why," continued the colonel with a broad grin, "I'd see Mr. Rockefeller, Mr. Morgan, Mr. Perkins and Jim Hill all together if they wanted to see me. I'd see Gompers, Mitchell, Burns, the detective, and McNamara if he was pardoned out of jail."

"I'll see anybody I want to at any time. If they don't want it known that they have been to see me I won't tell. If they do want it known I will tell."

The clerk announced that jurors not engaged in the case on trial were excused for the day, and Col. Roosevelt returned in his automobile to Oyster Bay.

NEW YORK, March 8.—"It is curious," said George W. Perkins yesterday, "that the papers should try to make a mystery out of my calling on Colonel Roosevelt when every one knows I am for him. I did see Senator Dixon last night. He is making an heroic fight against the tremendous odds of a powerful political machine, to give the people of this country a chance to express their preference for president."

"My talk with Senator Dixon was about this very important matter."

Hiram Johnson's Sincerity.
LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 8.—In a recital of what he declared to be "evidence," and not charges against anyone, in the course of a public address last night, Walter L. Houser, manager of Senator R. M. La Follette's campaign, was asked: "How about Governor Hiram Johnson?"

"I met your governor in Washington last February," replied Mr. Houser. "I met him before in New York. Then he said to me in that tense manner of his 'I'll stay by you as long as he is a candidate; I'll go through with him to the last ditch.'"

"I'll not defend or attack his course since then," continued the speaker. "He must answer for it to the progressives of California and for going to bed with Dan Hanna, George W. Perkins and the others."

Mr. Houser declared that Roosevelt's candidacy was conceived by Perkins and Hanna.

FORTUNE AT LAST SEEMS TO BE COMING IN THE DIRECTION OF CAPTAIN LEE CURTIS.

HENRY, Nev., March 8.—Fortune at last seems to be coming in the direction of Captain Peter Curtis, who has been engaged in developing mining properties in Alpine county for the past third of a century.

Accompanied by Mrs. Curtis and his son, Harry Curtis, of Gardnerville, the captain is spending a day or two in Reno. He has a big bunch of miners blocking out ore in his recent find near Loope.

Two ledges have been struck in the Morning Star group, which show pay values in gold, silver and copper. The extent of the strike will be demonstrated before any attempt is made to treat the ore.

FOUNDER OF ELEC-TRIC POWER LINE
DIES IN DENVER

DENVER, March 8.—Mr. Thomas Scott Hayden died of heart failure here yesterday, aged 73 years. He was president of the Denver Union Water company, director of the Denver National bank, director of the Denver Realty company and also a director of the Northern Finance company.

Mr. Scott was born in Waterford, N. Y. He was bank clerk in Milwaukee, Wis. Prior to this time he was in the furniture business in Chicago, settling in the city of Denver in 1887. He formerly was a partner of Charles D. Dickinson. He was a devotee of the Christian and an active member of the First Congregational church of Denver. The deceased leaves to mourn his demise a widow and three sons, Wilfred, Lewis and Newell, and one daughter, Mrs. William Lockhart.

His physicians for some time had been advising Mr. Hayden to take a long rest, but the sick man worked untiringly. He was stricken at the water company's general office.

With Messrs. Hobbs, Curtis, Campbell and Woods he conceived the idea of the Nevada-California Power company, which, at the time, was called the Nevada Power, Mining and Milling company. He was always active in the affairs of this company. The deceased was highly esteemed by all who knew him, he being kind and gentle, but persevering and forceful.
